In 1996 Days Of The New, headed by Travis Meeks were signed to Outpost Recordings a subsidiary of Geffen Records, and brought on to Warner Chapels publishing. Their first cd was recorded with Scott Litt, producer of R.E.M. and Nirvana's "Unplugged" album.

In early '96 Days Of The New did their first tour with "Kenny Wayne Sheppard". During that tour the single Touch, Peel and Stand was released, and went to #1 on rock radio and other charts.

Days Of The New has performed with such acts as Aerosmith and Metallica. Days Of The New made two videos for their first album, the self titled double platinum "Days Of The New" and released three single's which all reached #1 including Shelf In The Room and Downtown. Touch, Peel and Stand won an award for most played video on

MTV. Touch, Peel and Stand broke the record for the longest #1 single at rock radio.

SADIE RIX - With her mesmerizing voice surrounded by rich guitar work, Sadie Rix takes the listener along for a ride over familiar terrain laced with innovation and comfort. Part guitar-grrrl, part folkie-blast from the past with a Rock and Roll Edge, Sadie embodies a new generation of singer/songwriters raised in a music world full of strong, solid female performers. Sadie has sung with Lydia Pense and Cold Blood and has also recorded with Wally Minko from The Greg Rollie Band.

Patchwork Orange - The finest of Brit-Classic Rock. With David Alder on vocals and guitar, the band takes you back in time with your favorite songs from The Who, Led Zeppelin, Tom Petty and the Rolling Stones to name a few. The current lineup consist of Santa Rosa, Ca. residence, Will Campbell - Guitars/Mandolin/Lap Steel/Vox, Michael Ratikan - Keys/Synths/Guitars/Vox, Rich McConnell - Bass/Guitars, Todd Eroh - Drums/Perc and Jane Fossgreen - Sax/Vox/Perc
